

KEMP HEALEY CLASSIC

The Gateway Healey Association invites the Austin Healey Club of Kansas City to join them at a car show hosted by the Kemp Auto Museum in Chesterfield, Missouri on May 16, 2010 between 10:00am and 3:00pm.

The Kemp Museum houses one of the finest collections of vintage Mercedes Benz cars in the country as well as a few other rare cars . In order to expand the experience of the museum's visitors, the Kemp Museum has invited Austin Healeys as their guest marque. The exhibit of our cars will be outdoors and open to the public. There will not be any judging or awards of any kind. Food and drink concessions will be available on-site.

All cars must be preregistered by April 30, 2010. See attached registration form and return to Shane Thompson, 703 Rayburn, St. Louis, Missouri 63126, 314-288-7092, shanet70@yahoo.com

For more information on the museum see the museum's web site at <http://www.kempautomuseum.org/>

Healey owners may display placards with their cars which provide any interesting history about their particular car.

The Gateway Club will be hosting a barbeque Saturday evening on the Museum grounds for all attendees starting at 6:00p.m.

Hotel reservations may be made with the Chesterfield Hampton Inn located one mile from the Museum at a special rate of $86 per night by calling (636) 530-0770. State that you are with the Austin Healey group.
